Dear WSP Members,

Please see the email message below from a surgical pathology fellow at Yale University (Dr. Stephen Smith).

It would appear that he has sent this to state pathology societies across the country. Dr. Smith's request is for members to complete his online survey relating to quality management in surgical pathology. Obviously, participation is voluntary.

With regards,

Joel Mendelin, MD

President, Wisconsin Society of Pathologists

We are surveying surgical pathologists to better define diagnostic errors -- the brief survey should take around 10 minutes to complete; I reaching out and hoping that you might be able to distribute to the surgical pathologists within the Wisconsin Pathology Society? We are trying to get a sense of where surgical pathologists stand on reporting errors and this data will help us dramatically towards that end.

Doctor Day 2018 - WSP Plans to Support

Doctor Day 2018 has been set for Tuesday, January 30. The event will again be held at the Monona Terrace in Madison and is hosted by over 20 medical societies.

The event provides physicians an opportunity to meet with their legislators, and have input on important health care issues. The day will conclude with a reception in downtown Madison.

WSP is proud to support state advocacy efforts through sponsorship of the 2018 Doctor Day event.
